SOOTHING SHEERS, CALM AND COMPOSED - DARIO by Warwick

Overview: Transitional, translucent and gently textured - DARIO delivers a sheer to backdrop any interior. Light in handle and airy in nature, this wide-width fabric features an inherently soft texture through its uniform construction. Sophisticated and serene - DARIO creates casual and comforting environments with a calming character.

- Application: DARIO is a self-weighted, piece-dyed, 100% polyester plain weave. Fire rated and Oeko-Tex certified with a continuous 320cm wide finish - this transitional sheer brings its ethereal aesthetic to an extensive selection of interior schemes. Conforming in colour and capability, DARIO is perfectly suited to soft romans and drapery from small-scale residential to copious commercial applications.
- Colourways: With its organic texture and clean and concise palette - DARIO's selection of six timeless tones are versatile and accommodating in any situation. Cool and contemporary neutrals are found in Shadow, Polar and Smoke. For subtle saturation and warmth in more classic colours, see hues of Ivory, Chai and Flint.
- Rating: DARIO is fire rated to both AS1530.3 & AS1530.2 standards making it a capable and complimentary collection for both residential and commercial environments. Oeko-Tex certified with a continuous, self-weighted finish - this transitional 320cm wide-width sheer brings elegance and filtered privacy to interiors of all scales.
