FALL IN LOVE WITH SOOTHING, EMOTIVE SHEERS

Embrace beautiful, finely textured linen with TIAMO. Offering a generous wide width, TIAMO is a soothing, transitional sheer drapery that will create effortlessly dreamy, utopian spaces with its calming and gentle nature.

Design: Expressing 'love' in Italian, TIAMO is a plain, woven, pieced dyed sheer with a subtle puckered texture that creates a captivating crinkling effect like no other. Soft and delicate, TIAMO is made from 100% linen, making it ideal for those wanting a relaxed, organic aesthetic.

Application: For evocative and sophisticated spaces, TIAMO will induce a sense of untold serenity. With the added benefit of Oeko-Tex certification, TIAMO offers a continuous 300cm wide width, making it perfect for creating soothing drapery in any modern interior, especially for large-scale windows.

Colourways: In 11 colourways, TIAMO brings a timeless yet trend-driven palette of classic and fresh hues that will suit any space. Snow is an inviting, crisp white, while Eggshell and Linen are dependable neutrals that will fit any scheme. Also neutral but with a subtle pink undertone, Angora offers an elegant option. Nourishing tones of Shell, Rose and Honey provide warm, uplifting moods, reminiscent of the sunset. Laurel brings a soft, harmonious mint, whilst Silver is a cool, mid-toned blue-grey that is refined and tranquil. Lastly, Mist and Oyster are airy light greys that will sit beautifully in any modern interior.

Rating: Oeko-Tex certified with a 300cm continuous wide width, TIAMO is a naturally exquisite sheer that is versatile and perfect for softening interiors. Combined with its delicate nature, this collection's fresh yet timeless palette and unique crinkle effect will bring a relaxed and tranquil feel whenever it is featured.
